

'Defense Conversion' Topic for Discussion

The impact of "Defense Conversion" on Southern California will be subject of a four-man government and industry panel tomorrow evening at the Torrance Recreation Center, 3341 Torrance Blvd.

The debate is one of a series on "Explorations into Controversy: Politics '64." The series is sponsored by the South Bay Forum, Inc.

Panelists will include Dr. William Ellet, James Halpin, Julian Smith, and Dr. John Zuckerman. David Menkin of the University of California Extension will moderate the debate.

DR. ELLET is corporate director of Market Analysis at the Northrop Corp. His primary responsibility is to provide a continuing analysis of the market environment in which Northrop operates.

Halpin, chief deputy director of the California Department of Finance, heads a state task force which studies the problem of economic conversion of the California defense and aerospace industry.

Smith, who holds a master's degree in aeronautical and industrial engineering, is the chairman of the Southern California Industrial Planning Seminar at the University of Southern California. He is presently a member of the Office of Corporate Planning for Douglas Aircraft, Inc.

DR. ZUCKERMAN, associate professor of management and acting chairman of the Department of Business Administration at USC, is director of the Air Force Research and Development Management program.

Menkin, president of Menda Scientific Products, Inc., is the coordinator for a University Extension program on California's search for new sources of economic growth. He presently teaches an Extension course on "Techniques for Starting a New Engineering Enterprise."

The debate will begin at 8 p. m. Admission is $1 for adults and 50 cents for students.

'Bobby Thins' 'Lose to Win'

"Losing to Win" will be the subject of Dr. Robert A. Astone when he speaks to the Bobby Thins Tops club women Wednesday at the Gable House Bowl at 8 p. m. Dr. Astone is a staff member of Harbor General Hospital and is in private practice in Torrance.

Mrs. Diane Shepherd of 3615 W. 226th St. in program chairman.

DOES GETTING UP NIGHTS MAKE YOU FEEL OLD?
After 35, common Kidney or Bladder Irritations often occur and may make you tense and nervous from too frequent passages both day and night. Secondly, you may lose sleep and suffer from headaches, backache and feel tired, depressed. In such irritation, CYSTEX usually brings fast, relaxing comfort by curbing irritating germs in strong, acid urine and by analgesic pain relief. Get CYSTEX at drugstore. Feel better fast.
